Dear Bob,

As our terms of office draw to a close, I just want to let you know how much I have appreciated the chance to work with you and the splendid cooperation all of your people have given to us. I think and hope that we have made some important progress in coordinating our respective contributions to forecasting grain production and building a foundation for even wider forecasting in the future.

Pat and I send our very best to you and Helen, and hope we'll stay in touch.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER
